ALIV[H]E: Action Linking Interventions on Violence against women and HIV Everywhere

The UNAIDS-commissioned programme on Applied research services on inter-linkages between Gender Based Violence and HIV, led by a partnership of the Health Economics and HIV and AIDS Research Division (HEARD), Salamander Trust, AIDS Legal Network, the ATHENA Network and Project Empower announce 5 webinars about the programme learning.

Do join us for this 3rd webinar in the series.

When: Thursday 10th November 2016

Subject: 3: Participatory Approaches in Research

Time: UK 12:00; Geneva 13:00; South Africa 14:00; East Africa 15:00; India 17:30 (See below)

Duration: 2 hours

All people have an intrinsic right outlined in the Universal Declaration of human rights under article 27 to “participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits. (2) Everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he/she is the author.”. If people want to have programmes that are acceptable, accessible, affordable, attainable, then the sooner those most affected are involved in the programme design, development, implementation, monitoring and evaluation - the better.
