GLOBAL VILLAGE (“where the real conference takes place.....”)

WOMEN'S NETWORKING ZONE | BOOTH #524 Global Village

We are privileged to be part of the Steering Committee of the Women's Networking Zone in the Global Village, together with the ATHENA Network, the Eurasian Women's Network on AIDS (EWNA), and ICW Global.

We are also involved with partners in 3 specific sessions in the Women's Networking Zone:

Tuesday 24 July

Women and the International AIDS Conference: will anything change? An analysis of women living with HIV as abstract presenters at AIDS2016

17:30 – 18:30 ICW Zimbabwe, Salamander Trust, Transgender Law Center

Are women living with HIV equal partners in research? This session looks at an analysis from AIDS2016 and how we can increase the representation of women living with HIV as researchers and speakers at future IACs.

Wednesday 25 July

Scaling up programmes to prevent violence against women: The DREAMS programme as an example of challenges and how to overcome them

15:30 – 16:30 Salamander Trust, The CUSP – Center for Domestic Violence Prevention (CEDOVIP), Institute for Reproductive Health (Georgetown University), IMAGE, Puntos de Encuentro, Raising Voices, Sonke Gender Justice Tostan and WeCan (OXFAM)

A session for programme managers, donors and NGOs on scale-up of programmes using a women's rights perspective. A DREAMS case study will illustrate some of the challenges.

Thursday 26 July

Measure what counts: How the ALIV[H]E Framework can help us measure and address violence against women in the context of HIV

10:30 – 11:30 Salamander Trust, ATHENA Initiative, UNAIDS

Research processes often exclude the viewpoints that matter most – those of women most affected. This session describes how these can be harnessed to make policies and programmes more effective.

Our right, not a privilege and certainly not a debate – our sexual and reproductive health and rights at the heart of an effective response

11:30 – 12:30 Salamander Trust, ICW Global, Eurasian Women's Network on AIDS

The groundbreaking WHO 2017 Guideline on the SRHR of women living with HIV sets a new baseline for good practice in policies and programming. This session describes its content and how it can be used.
